Re: Your Public Information Act request received on August 12, 2019, for any and all policies, directives, or other guiding material regarding the enforcement of the following categories related to homeless citizens in the City of Houston: police interaction, transportation, housing, arrests, and legal representation; Attorney General Informal Letter Ruling OR2019-30597. GC No. 26088

Dear Mr. Adkins:

As you are aware from your copy of Attorney General Informal Letter Ruling 2019-30597, the City has received a response to our request for an opinion from the Attorney General. Because the Attorney General has determined that we may withhold the information you requested, we are closing our file on this matter.

If you have a question about your public information request, please contact me at (832) 393-6491.

Sincerely,
